Peter and the Wolf!

Tuesday, August
20, 2013 at 6:30
PM

What happens when Peter and his friends come face-to-face with the big, bad Wolf? Find out when the Portland Symphony Orchestra's Woodwind Quintet portrays Peter's adventures with his animal friends – a bird, a cat, and a duck – in an adaptation of Prokofiev's beloved musical tale.

This Summertime KinderKonzert is free and open to the public. No reservations are necessary. We are grateful for the support of the Friends of KFL who helped to underwrite the cost.

From the Children's Room

Thank you for a wonderful summer! We've had fun, with lots of people turning out for our programs, and lots of kids receiving prizes for how much they are reading. We've been really happy to see such a positive response to our first reading program for middle and high school students. They frequently are asking for 15–20 raffle tickets for 15–20 hours of reading!

The last Teen raffle drawing will be on Sat.,

KFL offers email alerts for items that will be due soon!

At the same time, you may choose to receive information about upcoming programs and events, news alerts, artists' receptions, classes, etc.

The library will be CLOSED on Mon. Sept. 2 for Labor Day.

We resume our regular Saturday hours (9:30 AM-5 PM) on Saturday Sept. 7.

Aug. 17, so be sure to get those raffle tickets! The last day for kids to collect prizes is Tues., Aug. 20. We'll be drawing the kids raffle prize winners before the Portland Symphony performance of Peter and the Wolf on Tues. Aug., 20.

In addition to the thanking the Friends of the Library for enabling us to bring Portland Symphony back this summer, we also want to thank Arundel Ice Cream, Berry'd Treasures, Kennebunk House of Pizza, Poofberry's and Toppings Restaurant for supporting our summer reading program with gift certificates for our raffle winners.

Our Summer Storytimes on Tuesdays and Thursdays have been rocking, with lots of new faces. It is obvious that you approved of our decision to keep storytimes in the morning! Our last Summer Storytime is Tues., Aug. 20 at 10:15 AM. We'll take a short break and return with our school year schedule starting the week of September 9th.

Personal Time Capsules for Teens

How would you like to remember your current self ten years from now? You can...by making a personal time capsule! Prior to the program, teens will collect items for their capsules and bring them to the library on Wed., Aug. 7 at 2 PM. Please preregister by emailing us or by calling 985-2173 x5.
