Talking to Strangers

Malcolm
Gladwell

Author of OUTLIERS
and host of the podcast REVISIONIST HISTORY

Nonfiction Book Group - December 7

Join us on Monday, December 7 at 6:30 p.m. to discuss Talking to Strangers by Malcolm Gladwell. Check our website calendar or rotating display for the Zoom link.

"Talking to Strangers is a classically Gladwellian intellectual adventure, a challenging and controversial excursion through history, psychology, and scandals taken straight from the news. Something is very wrong, Gladwell argues, with the tools and strategies we use to make sense of people we don't know. And because we don't know how to talk to strangers, we are inviting conflict and misunderstanding in ways that have a profound effect on our lives and our world." - Novelist

Adult Book Discussion - December 8

Join us on Tuesday, December 8 at 1:00 p.m. to discuss There There by Tommy Orange. Check our website calendar or rotating display for the Zoom link.

"Orange's commanding debut chronicles contemporary Native Americans in Oakland, as their lives collide in the days leading up to the city's inaugural Big Oakland Powwow. Bouncing between voices and points of view, Orange introduces 12 characters, their plotlines hinging on things like 3-D-printed handguns and VR-controlled drones. ... Time and again, the city is a magnet for these individuals. The propulsion of both the overall narrative and its players are breathtaking as Orange unpacks how decisions of the past mold the present, resulting in a haunting and gripping story. " (Publishers Weekly, vol 265, issue 14)

Block Printing - December 9

Carve a small block print for the holidays! Join us on Zoom on Wednesday, December 9 at 6:00 p.m. to make a festive art print or card to celebrate the season. Beginners are welcome, as are those with some block printing experience. The library will supply take-home kits to be picked up in advance containing the supplies you need to make a print. We will meet over Zoom for an introduction to the block printing process, work on carving our blocks and practice printing. You will be able to keep your carved block and printing paper, and return the tools and ink to the library after the program.

Space is very limited and registration is required. As block printing uses sharp tools, you will need to sign a waiver when you pick up your kit. Kits can be picked up and waivers signed via our curbside service. A Zoom link will be emailed to registrants close to the program date. Participants will need access to an internet enabled computer or device with camera and microphone that can be used near a workspace.

KFL Celebrates GivingTuesday

This GivingTuesday, The Kennebunk Free Library will inspire generosity by asking people to contribute to their 2020 Campaign.

GivingTuesday is a global generosity movement, unleashing the power of people and organizations to transform their communities and their world. GivingTuesday will kick off the generosity season this year by inspiring people to give back on December 1, 2020, and throughout the year.

The Kennebunk Free Library has experienced a decline in our special event fundraising efforts due to the Covid-19 Pandemic. While the KFL had to cancel or modify some special events such as our Literary Feast and Road Race, we have become creative in our efforts to reach out to our community. Thanks to The Friends of the KFL, we have been able to offer to offer ad-free movie streaming for your electronic devices using Kanopy and to increase our digital collections. Library staff have been very inventive in putting together "Take and Make" kits for children, teens, and adults with over 400 distributed since this summer. Even though we can't be together in person, we are still finding ways to stay connected!

To keep our "Take and Make" projects and other programming available to everyone, we are asking for a donation of $20 (or more if you feel inspired) to help us as we continue to expand into remote and virtual methods of reaching out to our wonderful, supportive community. Be one of 200 people to show the Kennebunk Free Library your support!

DONATE

Hannaford Community Bags

For every $2.50 reusable Community Bag purchased at the Kennebunk Hannaford in December, Hannaford will make a $1 donation to KFL.

Clynk

Turn your cans and bottles into a donation to KFL! Pick up one of our stickered Clynk Bags at the library during curbside hours, then return the full bag to Hannaford. Clynk will do the rest! Last year, the library received about $1,000 from Clynk donations, enough to fund all of our adult programs.

Amazon Smile

Donate to the library without spending an extra dime! Instead of shopping on the regular Amazon website, shop on smile.amazon.com and select KFL as your charity of choice. The options, the prices - everything is exactly the same but Amazon will donate a small portion of the sale to KFL.

A Message from the Friends

On behalf of the board of the Friends of KFL, I want to wish you all a healthy and happy Holiday season. Like all of you, we are very happy to have access to library materials and Zoom events to ensure we keep up a sense of community.

Soon you will be receiving our annual letter regarding membership. Please consider joining us, if you have not already done so, or renewing your membership for 2021. With your help, we can continue to provide funding for library services. You will also have the chance to actively be involved with this gem of an institution.

I wish you good health and prosperity in the coming New Year!

A Message from the Library Director

With 2020 drawing to a close we will be saying goodbye to Library Assistant, Krissy Thistleford. Krissy has been with us since 2013 and we wish her the best on her new adventure. Not only did Krissy build up a massive following for her Tuesday handicraft group In Stitches but over time took on many duties including managing KFL's Facebook page, ordering and processing adult DVDs, story times, and many other contributions. Her phenomenal customer service will certainly be a loss for the community. This is especially tough since we already had to say goodbye to Library Assistant Susan Mirisola this spring after 25 years at KFL.

Kat Boucher, Administrative Assistant, is also leaving her position at the start of January but has decided to stay on as a part-time Library Assistant. We are definitely happy to keep her around. Library Assistants Catherine Bonner and Jenny Brown will also have additional hours.

Staff Picks & Messages

With sadness, I must announce that I will be leaving KFL on December 9th. My husband finished grad school in August, and after several months of job-hunting has accepted a job in central Massachusetts. I am so excited to see where the next chapter of our lives takes us, but I will dearly miss KFL and all of the wonderful people I have gotten to know and love here. It has been a true pleasure working at the library these past 7.5 years, and I am incredibly grateful for my time here. I wish you all the very best.

This month, I checked out Kanopy, our library's new video streaming service. I found it easy to sign up for the service and navigate through the site. I didn't have a title in mind, so I liked how films were browsable by categories. I was happy to find the Short Film category, for example. I also found it helpful that I could add videos to "My List" and then later choose one from that list to watch. The first video I selected was Dear Mr. Shakespeare. At only 6 minutes in length, this Sundance-nominated short film is truly short, but I was really glad I used one of my seven monthly credits to view this carefully crafted exploration of race, immigration, blackness, Shakespeare, and Othello. The poetry and performances were hypnotic, and I therefore watched the film several times, which was easy to do since each Kanopy film can be viewed an unlimited number of times for three days after hitting play. I'm looking forward to my next film-find on Kanopy, and I invite you to contact the library if you have any questions about this new service.

Krissy, Library Assistant

Piranesi by Susanna Clarke

This poetic, thoughtful book instantly won my heart over with the strength of its narrator. It is not a book that tells you all or even most of the information right away, instead leaving the reader to put together clues as to what and where and when and why the events are happening (reminiscent of the way Room by Emma Donoghue is structured). I often find this type of book frustrating, but I did not mind it here. The narrator has an infectious sense of wonder and joy at new discoveries, and I found myself excited to learn more about the House not just because I wanted to know what was happening, but also because I wanted him to learn the answers to all his questions.

At times heartwarming, at times chill-inducing, this book always manages to be fascinating and draw you in. Yes, there is a mystery to uncover, but I found it was a book more to savor than to speed-read. It will sit with you long after you put it down.

Denise, Library Assistant
